

POORNIMA

GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

Report on National Design Competition-2016

29 March 2016

National design competition is a platform open to students from Civil Engineering, Architecture, Construction Management, Mechanical, Automobile, Industrial Production, and Product Design for displaying their talents in digital design skills. The competition has successfully been continuing for the last three years. The competition comprises of four rounds in the following order:

- 1st Round - At their respective college to perform 2D drafting. Approximate 47000 students was participate in that round. 4000 students was selected for next round.
- 2nd Round - At the nearest CADD Centre to generate 3D modelling. 4000 students was participate in that round. 400 students was selected for next round.
- 3rd Round - Regional Level at the CADD Centre to Design for objective using the respective software. 400 students was participate in that round. 8 students was selected for next round. IN North region (Haryana, Punjab, Rajasthan) only one students was selected.
- 4th Round - Finals at the Hyderabad to do Project Submission. 8 students was participate in that round.

The participants are given free training during the 2nd Round enabling them to move to the next level of competency. On the grand finale day the participants have to analyze the 3D models in front of the juries, study and carry out a procedure which should match the report already submitted. The finalist is selected based on his performance in the test and the presentation. The winner is awarded a cash prize of Rs. 1 Lakh along with a certificate and trophy. The winner is also given a lucrative job offer after the completion of the graduation or diploma course. The runner-up is awarded a cash prize of Rs.30,000/- along with a certificate and trophy. The other finalists are awarded a cash prize of Rs. 10,000/- each along with a participation certificate.

Mr. Kapil Asoriya is only selected student from Rajasthan, Haryana and Punjab region for final round and awarded a cash prize of Rs One Lakh along with a certificate and trophy in Final Round as a winner. They also gave Job offer to him. Mr. Kapil Asoriya is one of the brilliant student of third year civil branch. He has 76 aggregate percentage in B.Tech.

