INTERNSHIP REPORT AT CAIRO, EGYPT On " OASIS RENEWABLE ENERGY "

I was being selected for internship at OASIS RENEWABLE ENERGY, Cairo, Egypt through AIESEC, Jaipur. I was being given the post of IT SPECIALIST at the same. My job included the work of a Web Developer in the company. I did my best to satisfy the needs of the company and fulfill their demands and win over their expectations during my stay in Egypt from January 5th, 2016 to February 28th, 2016.

The tasks related to my job were quite clear and straight.

ABOUT THE OASIS:

ORE, based in Cairo, was founded in 2010, comprising the expertise of energy professionals and engineering professors operating in the renewable energy field. ORE provides education and training in the field of renewable energy, covering themes for decision makers, consultants, engineers, installers, technicians, undergraduates and schools. As a knowledge based company, ORE deeply believes in the added-value of research and development, particularly industry-related researches, and innovations to meet the local context.

The Oasis Renewable Energy deals with:

- Site Scouting for Project Development.
- Provision of Technical services.
- Research, Development and Training.
- Research the Market and identify Opportunities.
- Project Development
- Engineering, procurement and contracting.
- Energy sector-general experience.
- Experience in Energy efficiency.

MY TASK

- During the first 15 days of my internship I had to attend and actively take part in all the meetings and seminars organized by the company.

- Then I had to understand internal strategies and marketing tact of the company and give the feedback to the CEO.
- After that a requirement analysis of their company was to be done.
- Finally a complete interaction with CEO for creating the website for his company according to his will and requirements.
- My site is published at the internet with the web address: www.oasis-renewable-energy.com

LEARNING POINTS DURING MY INTERNSHIP:

- I faced innumerable new challenges every day because you are alone in a new country of different cultures and different life style.
- Gained more confidence.
- International exposure in an established company. Working and co-ordinating with different people abroad.
- Became more competent.
- Attained better managerial skills.
- Better decisive power and more self-reliant.

THE AIESEC BENEFITS:

The project in which I was engaged also had interns from U.S.A., China, Argentina, Australia, Peru and Sri Lanka. The permanent staff members of the Oasis were Egyptians. So I has to coordinate with the people from seven different countries which was itself a wonderful experience for me.

AIESEC provided me the accommodation in which I had to share the utilities and stuffs with all the interns from 22 different countries. We people, all from 22 different countries interacted on daily basis. It was a great experience for sure.
