

POORNIMA

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

A Brief report on three days Entrepreneurship activity held at PCE

On 4 January, 2017; Poornima College of Engineering organized a workshop on “Entrepreneurship Awareness” under the leadership of Startup Oasis, Jaipur. The objective of this awareness camp was to create awareness among students of PCE.

The first phase of workshop was organized to inspire, support the aspiring student of PCE who look forward to choose their career as entrepreneur. The other phases of workshop will comprise of three days program in which various conceptions related to entrepreneurship will take place. The workshop will include the introduction to startup Oasis and EAC, a session on how to make pitch deck, understanding Lean Model Canvas, open Q&A, Networking Session, etc. Dr. Om Prakash Sharma, Director, PCE and Mr. Abhayjeet Singh, T&P Officer, PF welcomed Yogendra Singh, Co-founder, Forsk, Amit Jain, Co-founder, Bijson and Dilnawaz Khan, Sen. Manager, StartUp Oasis.

The first phase of program was initiated with the opening remarks of Dr. Om Prakash Sharma, Director, PCE who shared his valuable thoughts with students and motivated them to learn and implement the knowledge into practical aspects. Mr. Yogendra Singh, Co-founder, Forsk stated to the students that entrepreneurship is the necessity of present. Mr. Amit Jain, Co-founder, Bijson also presented his views. He emphasized on need and importance of entrepreneurship in professional factors. The session ended with vote of thanks given by Mr. Abhayjeet Singh.