

POORNIMA

GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

REPORT ON TEQIP III RTU (ATU) SPONSORED ONEDAY GATE ORIENTATION AND AWARENESS PROGRAMME

The Orientation Program is an overview of the facilities and opportunities available to the students through GATE. It aims to familiarize and Aware the students regarding GATE and opportunities from GATE doubts. In this all year students participated in this awareness program. Mr. Piyush Sharma Asst. Prof., Zone Tech, Jaipur he shared his valuable knowledge on Wednesday, September 19, 2018 with the students embarking on this new journey towards the bright carrier through GATE. The Orientation program organized jointly by Rajasthan Technical University, Kota and Poornima Group of Institutions, Jaipur. The students of Civil Engineering, Computer Science Engineering and Mechanical Engineering were attended this orientation.

About the Speaker: Mr. Piyush Sharma, completed his B. Tech. in 2012 and completed M.E from BITS in Transportation Engineering. Cleared the GATE exam consecutively for three times. He has three years of teaching experience to GATE aspirants' students for GATE preparation.

Objective:

The goals and objectives of Orientation are:

- To introduce students to GATE services which will support their educational and personal goals
- To facilitate initial academic advisement, course selection, and registration for higher studies.
- To familiarize students with the paper patterns and cut off facilities.
- To create an atmosphere that minimizes anxiety, promotes positive attitudes, and stimulates an excitement for learning.
- To motivate students towards better employment and learning opportunities for continuing students for a bright carrier.

About the Session

There are total 3 sessions, each session is of 120 minutes each for civil engineering, Computer science engineering and Mechanical engineering branch. Session one begins with the Civil Engineering department under the supervision of Mr. Mukul Nama, 180 students of final year actively participated in program for 120 minutes. Session two concern with the Computer Science Engineering Students under the supervision of Mr. Manish Bhardwaj, 120 students actively participated in program for 120 minutes. Session three is for Mechanical Engineering students under the supervision of Mr. Ashwani Kapoor, 90 students actively participated in program. Each session start with the introduction of speaker and about the TEQIP III. Then speaker hold the mike and start giving orientation to the students regarding GATE using wonderful presentation. Following topics are covered in presentation:

- Introduction of GATE.
- Why we need GATE
- Carrier opportunities through GATE (Branch Specific Basics).
- Salary package
- GATE paper pattern and cut off
- Motivation for GATE

Concluding with an informal interaction with the students regarding the orientation, the orientation program successfully met its objective to provide a motivation and process for GATE 2019.

