

POORNIMA

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Report of book launch of Mahendra Pratap singh

“THE SMOKE AFTER FIRE”

24 NOV 2014

Congratulations! Another finishing touch to Poornima’s Triumph!

2years of hard work and the constant drive to do the best has paid off to finally be a writer.

It’s an endeavour to recognize & celebrate the remarkable effort of our student of Poornima College of engineering named Mr Mahendra Pratap Singh PCE who has written a fiction named “Smoke after the Fire”. His work has been sincerely appreciated by Bollywood screen play writer- Prof. Ravindra Katyan who also published the book successfully on the event named Rajasthan International Film Festival held at Jawahar Kala Kendra on 28th Oct, 2014.

Today we Poornima Family along with few eminent dignitaries of college with minister of social justice- Mr Arun Chaturvedi formally launched his book at the event conducted at Poornima University.

Mahendra Pratap singh was felicitated with lots of good wishes by the honourees and his fellow mates and most importantly his family members who felt proud for his great achievement.

About the Novel: THE SMOKE AFTER THE FIRE

This novel is all about current education system of Rajasthan and the miserable suicidal cases which happens in Rajasthan. He has narrated his own experience when he went to the city-Kota and was persuaded to put forth his ideology regarding the complications faced by the student who wish to pursue engineering and the pressure which leads him into wrong doings.

We congratulate him once again and wish him all the very best for his future endeavours.

